

BUILD YOUR OWN MUSEUM!

Hello! I'm Andy van Kasteren, and this is my wife Lotty. Years ago, we decided to start collecting dairy and heritage items to ensure that future generations would be able to see how our founding farming families once lived.

We are so proud of our collection, but never imagined that one day it would transform into a whole Museum!

Could you imagine starting YOUR OWN MUSEUM?

Well, why not start planning now?

Use the following sheets to help you plan your very own museum. Have fun, and let your imagination go wild!

Brainstorm ideas for your museum!

Some of the attractions at my Museum would be:

BUILD YOUR OWN MUSEUM!

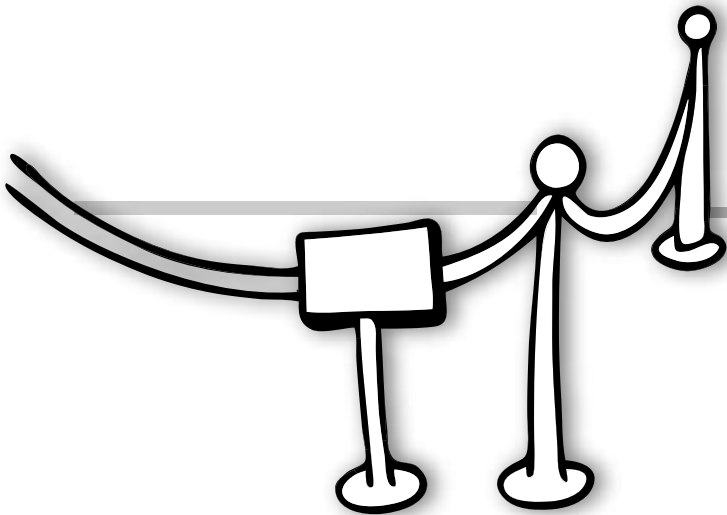

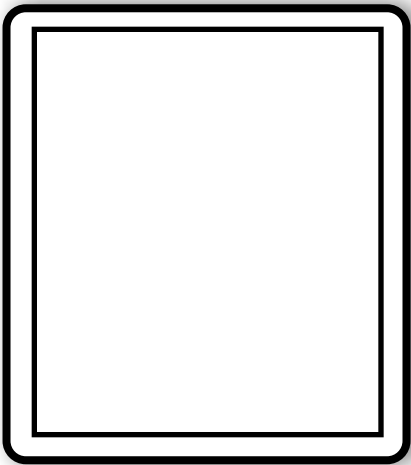

Where in the world will your Museum be located?

Will it be located In a town? In the country? What will the building look like?

If I had a ride at my museum, it would be...

If I could have someone famous give a speech at the opening of the museum, I would ask...
